RADICAL CHANGES IS CONFESSION OF WRONG

Insurance Commit- tee Takes This View

OF McCURDY'S SALARY CUT

Testimony Shows "Hush" Money Was not Unknown to Companies

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Members of the legislative insurance investigating committee this morning are commenting upon the sweeping changes made by the Mutual yesterday and are of the opinion it is a complete confession by the officers of affairs existing in the company. Committee members were of the opinion the companies would make no change unless so directed by new legislation.
Frank B. Jordan, son of Thomas D. Jordan, former comptroller of the Equitable, was called to the stand this morning and asked concerning the whereabouts of his father. He said he did not know. Samuel S. McCurdy, assistant register of the Equitable, testified as to salaries and expenses. A letter from Hill to Alexander produced a laugh. The postscript was:
"Feel good congress has adjourned and the country is safe. When the legislature adjourns the state will be safe."

'He's Getting Cantankerous.'
Gage E. Tarbell, second vice president of the Equitable, in charge of the general agents, was called. He participated in two syndicates but did not know the Equitable was in. Until last winter he had nothing to do with stock purchases. Depew was called and questioned in regard to letters to the officials saying "Friend is around again. Our friend up river is getting cantankerous and wants to know; you know." Depew did not recall who was meant, but said it was not a legislator nor politician.

Paid Clune's Brother.
McCurdy spoke of the money spent for legal expenses in the three years following the long fight of 1897 with J. Clune, state insurance commissioner of California. He told how he paid $250 monthly to Clune's brother through Judge Pillsbury. Hughes questioned along the line which caused the inference to be drawn that Clune's brother was paid because Clune made demands which if obeyed would drive the company from the state. McCurdy said the Mutual and New York Life also paid Clune's brother the same. McCurdy is not related to Richard A. McCurdy. He said former Governor Budd of California came to New York to make an investigation. He spent all the time with the company's attorney from California.

"Legislation" Expenses.
McCurdy showed vouchers paid for "legal expenses." There were a number of a thousand each to various political leaders of the states. One payment of nearly $3,000 was to Robert Lusum, of Milwaukee, for legal services in Wisconsin in 1899. One of $1,000 was to S. S. Olds, Lansing, Mich., for legal services before the Michigan legislature.

MERCHANTS INSPECT NEW PLANT

Guests of Manager Williams

NEW LIGHTS IN OPERATION

Wonderful Plant of New Company is Scene of Redemption

As guests of Manager Williams and the Wisconsin Light & Power company, about fifty citizens last night visited the new plant of the independent company.

"Among the guests the faces of city officials were prominently seen, the balance of the party being made up of businessmen of the town. Manager Williams was present in person, and everybody had a chance to shake hands with Walter McDonald, who is intimately connected with the foundation of the new establishment, and who at the time happened to be showing his mother through the plant. Walter Rose, smiling and bland and talking "electricity" and "turbines," etc., like an expert, was on the ground; Comptroller Chris Connor strutted about with a proprietary air (because he was once with The Tribune); City Clerk Sieger looked bravely at the massive machinery; John Downs waxed eloquent over the backsliding members who had doubted that it ever would be a "real, live plant"; James G. Murray beamed upon the crowd and imbibed volts and watts and amperes and information and exuded good humor. That was only a little part of all who were there and what all those who were there did, but it goes to show the feeling of the party. There were Lange and Schultz, Chas. B. Miller, Billy Wolfe, Otto Dumke, Gilberson, McDonough, Leuth—but what is the use trying to remember. The north side was there in numbers, and to say that north siders are enthusiastic about this plant is putting it mildly. Not only the men, but the women, were on the ground to express their wonder and satisfaction.

A dozen carriages conveyed the visitors from the rendezvous at the Hotel Stoddard to the plant. The carriages were crowded, and a number of people took the street cars, preferring this course to waiting for the carriages that were ordered immediately when it was discovered that the conveyances were inadequate. The number of people who assembled at the plant would have taxed the street car system, had not many of them resided on the north side and required no conveyance.

To fittingly describe the plant is beyond the capabilities of any but a professional electrician, and The Tribune has enlisted the services of Consulting Engineer Cloose to do this work, his article to appear in the near future. Suffice it to say that when the men who had read so much about this new enterprise stood in the presence of the immense furnaces and engines, looked up at the gigantic turbines, viewed the intricate switchboards, reformers, and a thousand and one other devices, walked through the coal sheds as clean as a kitchen and timidly gazed at the white-faced Nernst lamps that illumined without dazzling or confusing, making the great space within the buildings a flood of steady, pleasing light, they were awed and surprised by the majesty of Mechanical Construction. Every visitor left the plant feeling that he or she had been within the walls of the most wonderful product of American mechanical ingenuity that La Crosse ever held.

The party returned in a couple of hours, and expressions of congratula-

LA FOLLETTE MEN DEFEAT DURLAND

Turn Him Down as Asylum Trustee Be- cause he Recommended Stalwart Comm.

As a political rebuke to J. J. Durland for nominating a solid stalwart delegation of state civil service commissioners in his assembly district, La Follette republicans in the county board this afternoon effected his defeat for re-election as trustee of the county insane asylum.
The campaign against Mr. Durland started two weeks ago, when it became known that he had sent a list of names to Madison which contained not a single La Follette man.
The campaign was carried on so quietly among the supervisors that not an inkling of what was being done reached the stalwart camp. The result of the first informal ballot giving William Duncan, the north side liveryman 18 votes to Mr. Durland's 15, was a great surprise to the Durland supporters, who though their man had an easy victory. Mr. Duncan was elected on the second ballot.
No nominations were made, each supervisor voting for the man of his choice. The first ballot, which was informal, resulted:
Blank, 1; W. G. Riek, 1; Thomas Stavrum, 10; J. J. Durland, 15; William Duncan, 18.
The first formal ballot resulted:
William Duncan, 22; J. J. Durland, 14.
Mr. Duncan was declared elected for a period of three years.
J. M. Pierce was re-elected as superintendent of poor of the second district for a period of three years.
J. G. Eagan was re-elected county physician by a unanimous vote.

SWAIN GETS HUNTING LICENSE

County Clerk Rawlinson was busy up stairs in the county board meeting. Deputy Treasurer William Weimar was presiding at the hunting license desk during his absence, penning a license for a prospective hunter who stood by awaiting his document.
Another young man sauntered into the office and patiently awaited the delivery of the paper to the other young man. "Give me one of those, too," he directed the deputy as the first young man departed.
"All right," said the clerk, proceeding with the usual questions regarding color of hair and eyes, weight, height and other marks of identification. The young man looked rather surprised as the examination continued, but evidently believing the clerk knew his business made no comments, but pocketed his license, paid his dollar and departed with a happy look in his eyes.

The next day inmates of the building were startled by a great rush of feet through the corridors and excited exclamations from the county clerk's office. It was the young man of the day before who had said "Give me one of those too" to Deputy Weimar. He wanted a marriage license, and his mistake had not only caused the postponement of his wedding for a day but nearly lost him a bride. She finally forgave him, however, evidently realizing that his carelessness was the result of a mind much perturbed over the coming event.

Universalists Banquet

The first of a series of banquets to be given during the coming year to promote good fellowship and to get better acquainted was held in the Universalist church parlors last evening.

There was a large attendance, 110 being seated at the banquet board. Mayor William Torrance was toastmaster. The speakers and their subjects were as follows:

"What Are We Here For?"—Dr. H. B. Laffin.
"What Can the Minister Do?"—Rev. J. S. Lowe.
"What Can Music Do?"—W. W. West.
"What can Laymen Do?"—John Daniels.
"What Can We All Do?"—Edward Heberd.

FAT COUNTY SALARIES CUT BY SUPERVISORS

BIDS FOR LIGHT- ING COURT HOUSE

County Board Decides to Let New Company in on Deal

Lighting of the county buildings will be opened to competition to enable the Wisconsin Light & Power company to put in bids. The county board took action to this end this morning when it unanimously passed the following resolution:
Resolved, that the committee on building and grounds is hereby authorized and instructed to advertise for bids and to contract with the lowest bidder, to furnish light at court house and jail providing that they find it to be for the best interests of the county.

A MILLION A WEEK ROCKEFELLER'S INCOME

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—John D. Rockefeller will on Dec. 15 next draw $5,000,000 as his share of a dividend of $10 a share declared today by the Standard Oil company. The total dividend will be $10,000,000, and Mr. Rockefeller now owns 50 per cent of the capital stock of the company, in addition to 49 per cent of the capital stock of all subsidiary companies.
The declaration of today makes the year 1905 40 per cent, or $40,000,000. Of this Mr. Rockefeller's share is $20,000,000. It is estimated that his income from his railway, gas, subsidiary oil companies and other investments will be at least $20,000,000 more, so that his income for the year on the most conservative estimate has not been less than $40,000,000.

UNIVERSITY OF N. DAKOTA PLAYS NOV. 30

Manager Riley of the Wisconsin Business University football team received word this morning that the University of North Dakota team would be here for Thanksgiving day. This will be by all odds the big game of the year and the local team is already training for the event.

The business university has undertaken a big contract in bringing this team all the way from Grand Forks. The railroad fare alone will amount to over four hundred dollars and there will be other large expenses. Local followers of the game will no doubt appreciate the attraction however, and turn out in numbers.

Labor Federation Adjourns Today

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
PITTSBURG, Nov. 17.—The Federation of Labor adjourned early this morning to allow the committee to complete its work.

Sheriff Will Get $500 Less

CLERK OF COURT ON SALARY

Fees Cut Out, While Under- sheriff Suffers Also

Three important changes in the salaries of county officers were made this morning, when the county board reduced the sheriff's salary from $3,000 to $2,500 per year, and made the clerk of the court a salaried officer at $1,200 per year instead of allowing the retention of all fees. The undersheriff's salary was reduced from $1,200 to $1,000.

These are regarded as the two best offices in the county and the aim of the board was to compensate the officers in accordance with their work and responsibility as compared to that of other county officers. The office of the clerk of the court is figured to be worth between $2,000 and $2,000 per year under the fee system. The compensation is practically cut in two by the action of the board. The sheriff in addition to his salary receives considerable money from civil legal business and from a few other sources.

The changes in salary cannot take effect during the present incumbents' term, the law providing that salaries of county officers shall be set by county boards at the annual meeting preceding the year in which terms of office expire.

The committee also recommended that the salary of the county physician be reduced from $1,200 to $1,100 per year. This developed great opposition, a number of supervisors pointing out that the county physician was overworked and arguing for an increase if any change was to be made. The salaries of the county physician and district attorney were finally fixed at the old figure, $1,200 per year for each.

Other county officials' salaries were left at the old figures.

FORMER SHERIFFS MUST GIVE BACK THEIR SPOILS

WAUSAU, Wis., Nov. 17.—A sensation was created at the meeting of the county board yesterday. The special investigating committee appointed at the spring session reported that it had found former sheriffs, Chief of Police Thomas Malone, democrat; Assemblyman August F. Marquardt, La Follette republican, and Register of Deeds U. R. Chellis, conservative republican, were indebted to the county $1,488.58 divided as follows: Malone, $134.30; Marquardt, $673.33; Chellis, $680.95.
It is charged that these sums are due the county because of overcharges for taking prisoners and patients to the various state institutions. It seems that the principal difference was in the matter of attendants. This is a graft common to sheriffs all over the state and a reckoning is apt to be called in many counties soon.

LIGHT LOVERS' TRYSTING PLACE

KENOSHA, Wis., Nov. 17.—Because the terrace of the Gilbert M. Simmons library in this city has been used as a trysting place for lovers, the commissioners of the library have ordered the erection of four big pier lights which will make it possible to keep the terrace flooded with light at all hours of the night. The lights will cost the city more than $500.

COBURN GIVES CO. VALU- ABLE WAR DEPT. RECORDS

Notice was served in the county board this morning that F. P. Coburn of West Salem, former congressman and for years on the board of supervisors, had donated to the county a complete set of official records of the war of the rebellion.

The edition comprises 102 volumes, published by the government a number of years ago. It was while Mr. Coburn was in congress that he came into possession of the records. The books contain a complete history of the civil war, giving copies of all correspondence, diagrams of battle fields and histories of battles with all attending data.

As a work of reference the books are invaluable. They will be installed in the G. A. R. headquarters in the county building.

The board this morning extended a vote of thanks to Mr. Coburn and made arrangements to have the valuable records transported from the Coburn home to the county building.

PARENTS OF EDDIE LEE TO FIGHT

Parents of Eddie Lee, one of the trio of boys sentenced to the industrial school for perpetrating a number of small robberies, will appeal his case to the circuit court.

Notice of appeal was filed in the county court this morning and the case will in all probability be heard during the January term of court. The boy will be released on bail pending the outcome of his case.

GIRLS FACE DEATH TO SAVE BULL

With true Scotch grit the two daughters of James Ferrier of the town of Saratoga, in Winona county, risked their lives to save a $200 Short-horn bull belonging to their father.

The animal had just been purchased, and was fastened by stanchions in the barn among some other cattle, when the older bull which the younger animal was to replace at the head of the herd worked loose and attacked the younger one, goring it severely.

SHIFT.

If Your Food Fails to Sustain You, Change.

One sort of diet may make a person despondent, depressed and blue and a change to the kind of food the body demands will change the whole thing.

A young woman from Phil. says: "For several years I kept in a run-down miserable sort of condition, was depressed and apprehensive of trouble. I lost flesh in a distressing way and seemed in a perpetual sort of dreamy nightmare. No one serious disease showed, but the 'all-over' sickness was enough."

"Finally between the doctor and Father I was put on Grape-Nuts and cream as it was decided I must have nourishing food that the body could make use of."

"The wonderful change that came over me was not, like Jonah's gourd, the growth of a single night, and yet it came with a rapidity that astonished me. During the first week I gained several pounds in weight, my spirits improved, and the world began to look brighter and more worth while. And this has continued steadily, till now, after the use of Grape-Nuts for only a few weeks, I am perfectly well, feel splendidly, take a lively interest in everything, and am a changed person in every way." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason.

ROUSING OLD TIME MEETING OF THE COLWELL POST

An old time rousing meeting was held last evening by Wilson Colwell Post, G. A. R., the occasion being the mustering into its ranks of seven new members.

Representatives from all parts of the city were present and all spoke in glowing terms of the interest shown by the members of the post.

It is perhaps safe to say that no other post outside of Wolcott Post of Milwaukee has more influential members in its ranks than has Wilson Colwell Post.

The post was named after Capt. Wilson Colwell, of Co. B, Second Wisconsin, who was killed at South Mountain. The post was organized 23 years ago and has upwards of 100 members in good standing on its rolls and as the meeting showed last night the membership is still growing.

Speeches were made by several comrades after which lunch was served by the W. R. C. and all present pronounced it a most happy and enjoyable evening.

WOODMEN MAY BUILD BIG LODGE HALL

Woodmen lodges of the city are considering the advisability of banding together and erecting a building to contain a mammoth lodge room adapted to big gatherings of any sort. PROPRIETOR OF WIL- TON HOUSE DEAD

The community was shocked Tuesday morning when word was passed around that Mr. Eric M. Cosgriff, the popular and genial landlord of the Wilton House, had passed away, says the Wilton Herald.

On Monday, Nov. 6th, he was stricken with that relentless disease, typhoid fever, and in spite of the noble fight for life on his part, and in spite of all that loving hands and skilled medical aid could do, he gradually failed, and for days his life hung in the balance, but the strain was too great for human endurance and shortly before nine o'clock Tuesday morning, the slender thread of life was severed and he peacefully passed away to that bourne from whence no traveler returns.

He was 33 years of age.

Crook Raises Money Orders

Postmaster W. B. Tschanner of this city is in receipt of a letter from R. M. Fulton, inspector in charge of the postoffice at St. Louis, cautioning him to be on the lookout for a stranger who has been raising postoffice money orders in that section of the country, and who it is thought may be working up toward this vicinity. So far efforts to apprehend him have not been successful. What he has so far accomplished, his plan of working and a description of his appearance are given in the letter, which reads as follows:

"On October 31 two money orders were purchased at Station No. 3, St. Louis, one for thirty-five cents, the other for twenty-five cents, drawn on New York City and Boston, Mass., respectively. On November 2 two other money orders were purchased at the same station of like amounts and on the same offices."

"The name of the remitter of the first two orders was given as Bert. Cameron. The first two orders turned up at Kansas City, raised to $50 each, and office of payment changed to Kansas City. The name of payee was also changed from F. Smith and M. May to that of Wm. Smith on both orders. The last two orders have not yet been heard from but will probably be passed in some of the larger cities."

"Postmasters are instructed to advise money order clerks at the main office and stations to be on the lookout for any person purchasing orders of small amounts like these and especially so if he answers the description below, and to cause his arrest and then wire this office. Paying clerks at postoffices and merchants should be cautioned against paying orders to strangers without proper identification, and if a party of the following description attempts to pass such orders he should be apprehended."

West Prairie Pioneer Dies Suddenly

Word has been received here of the sudden death of Cyrus Sanderson, an old resident of West Prairie, Trempealeau county.

Mr. Sanderson had suffered with rheumatism for a long period, and Tuesday was the first time he had been out of the house for three weeks, although he had been up and about.

Tuesday afternoon he drove to Centerville and then on to the home of William Bennett. Arriving at the Bennett place he secured his horse and approached the house. As he was about to enter the door he staggered and would have fallen but for assistance. Dr. Jegi was summoned, but Mr. Sanderson was dead before he arrived. Deceased was 74 years of age.

Gets Large Sum for Land

FLORENCE, Wis., Nov. 17.—A land deal, aggregating thousands of dollars and the transfer of several hundred acres of land in Florence and Marinette counties, has just been consummated. Mrs. Mitchell, widow of the late U. S. Senator John L. Mitchell of Milwaukee, has sold over 1,100 acres of fine hardwood timber land to the Sawyer-Goodman company of Marinette, for a consideration, it is reported, of $25,000. Six hundred acres of the land lies in Florence county, and something over 500 acres is in the northern part of Marinette county, near the Florence county line.

NEW SLEEPERS FOR PIONEER LIMITED

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, one of the three roads in the United States owning and operating its own sleeping cars, announces an innovation of equipment for the Pioneer Limited trains between Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis.

In the new cars just placed in commission, the drawing room will be in the center instead of at the ends of the cars. These are the first cars after such a pattern ever constructed, and that change is made to afford easier riding and additional comfort for travelers using these compartments.

Heretofore drawing rooms have always been over the truck at either end, which, in the opinion of many, is a rough place to ride. The new cars will be compartments throughout. Two of the cars which have been named Onalaska and Ontonagon, are finished and will be put into service at once.

The flavor of much of the tobacco made now-a-days is produced by DOCTORING the leaf. Doctoring is a cheat and dangerous to the health of the smoker, but it costs the maker a whole lot less, it enables him to use the cheapest grade of tobacco. Red Feather Tobacco is absolutely free from all artificial flavoring. Its fine flavor and aroma is the result of a perfect blend of high grade leaf, cured by an entirely natural process.

THE SILLY FLATTERER.

Barnum said that "the American people like to be humbugged." There is more or less truth in this, but the American people insist on selecting the manner in which they are to be "humbugged." They regard it as a species of recreation for which they pay, and not being beggars, they are entitled to choose.

A great many publishers take the view that Barnum's deduction as to "humbuggery" means that the American people like to be 'soft soaped.' That, we believe, is an error. To a really big man there can come no more trying experience than to see his name emblazoned in terms of palpable flattery in the columns of a newspaper whose silly publisher believes he is thereby "making himself good" for liberal business patronage. When a modest man makes a few sensible remarks at a dinner, and thereafter finds himself lauded as a mighty genius by a designing but not discerning editor, he resents the over-done meanderings of the servile pen that he knows has made men smile where no joke was meant; and the more substantial and intelligent the man, the greater will be his displeasure.

And so, all due respect to the opinions of Mr. Barnum, we do not believe that editorial "soft soap" can be traded promiscuously for business patronage.

THE DEMAND OF THE HOUR.

The announcement that the businessmen of this community have expressed a keen interest in the construction of a second causeway to the north side, and that City Engineer Wood has prepared estimates of its cost and other data throwing light upon the requirements both financial and physical involved in the project, is the most pleasing news of the season to those who are watching the struggle of this city for industrial supremacy.

The most convincing evidence of the value of the proposed improvement is found in the assertion that the Summit Stove Works conditions the removal of its main offices from New York state to this city upon the building of this road. This testimonial of belief in its materiality to our manufacturing element, added to that of the La Crosse Rubber Mills Co., should leave no doubt in the mind of any man that the building of the thoroughfare is the most urgent demand upon the public exchequer.

What pleasure to know that the Summit plant has so prospered here as to decide, or even contemplate, removing its headquarters to its branch location within two years of its first efforts in this vicinity. One thing only could have prompted this step—success. This firm has been engaged for years in transporting heavy merchandise to a widely distributed market. It can measure shipping advantages accurately, and if it thinks well of La Crosse as a commercial center from which to unload its wares, there is solid reason to believe that this city has advantages that will appeal to other great factories.

SOFT SOAP AND BUSINESS.

Good evening! I have come back. I just dropped in a moment to hand a bunch of fulsome flattery to a few people who will swallow it and hand me pence. Funny what gullible people these merchants are! There's G. M. H., I've strung him along until he has a spasm of pink tea delight whenever I stop over. And W. E. D., didn't I push the greased gimblet into him and make him like it! I'll get acres of display in return for these gracious popcocks that trickle from my ever ready quill. But there, I must go now and paper my sanctum (I'm using Common Stock) Tomorrow I will return and talk to you about that court house lighting deal. Tra-la-lu!

proval, and he will keep the one that pleases."

Clerks comparing notes found that other young women had pajamas out on approval, and noticed that all were returned.

When the last had been returned a clerk caught sight of the envelope of a photographer. His suspicions were aroused.

"Had your pictures taken, didn't you?" he said.

"Oh, did the photographer tell you?" was the unguarded exclamation. "We told him we would kill him if he made this known."

MODJESKA'S FAREWELL HERE ON THANKSGIVING

Modjeska's positive farewell is to occur here Thanksgiving matinee and night in "Mary Stuart" and "Macbeth." A farewell tour that is all the term implies is that of Mme. Helena Modjeska which will bring this magnificent actress to the opera house on the above date, in a sumptuous revival of one of her greatest successes. Some players and singers begin to say farewell early and continue to do so at regular intervals until decrepit with age and forced by nature to retire. Modjeska never before authoritatively announced a good-bye tour and she never will again. She has obligated herself to Manager Jules Murray by word and bond never to appear on the public stage in America, either professionally or for charity, under any management or circumstances whatsoever after this tour. Her bond really was not needed. Modjeska's word always has been considered her bond, but she, knowing the abuse to which so-called "farewells" have been put, wished to make known her determination in the strongest manner possible. Very seldom it is that an artist retires when in the very prime of popularity and power. Mary Anderson (one of Modjeska's warmest friends and admirers) is about the only one who did so and held to her determination. Realizing that on account of her splendid physical condition some might be skeptical of her purpose, the Polish actress was all the more ready to insist that the obligatory clause, carrying with it a heavy penalty, should be inserted into her contract with Mr. Murray.

Mr. James W. Morrissey of New York is here in the interest of his star.

You are not a "good manager" unless you are a regular reader of the store-ads, for your money will not "go" nearly so far if you are a little "rusty" on prices, and places and times to buy.

DIVES SIX STORIES AND IS ALIVE

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Diving from the roof of a six story tenement at Moore and Morrell streets. Williamsburg, last night, Meyer Newmark, a tailor, aged thirty-four, of No. 164 McKibben street, received injuries which will cause his death.

Scores of residents of the thickly populated neighborhood saw Newmark jump. He attracted attention when he poised himself on the roof cornice and a crowd stopped to watch him.

In his descent he turned two somersaults and struck the sidewalk on his feet. His legs were fractured and his skull was cracked when he fell backward on the pavement.

That Newmark did not make an instant success of his attempt at suicide was a surprise to the appalled witnesses of his act, the police and an ambulance surgeon. Although terribly injured he was conscious, and on his way to St. Catherine's hospital feebly begged Dr. O'Day, the ambulance surgeon, to let him die. He had been unable to find employment and had become despondent.

Girls Photographed in the Pajamas

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Nov. 17.—"I would like to look at some pajamas," said a Fond du Lac girl, as she approached a clerk in a mercantile establishment.

Her embarrassment was plainly visible in the further remark:

"You see, I have a cousin in Oakfield, and I want to make him a present. I would like two suits on ap-

AMATEURS TONIGHT

Tonight is the banner night of the week at the Bijou.

The much looked for amateur performance promises to be better, snappier and livelier than any for several weeks.

An especially strong line up of local players has been produced for tonight and that the house will be crowded with enthusiastic audiences seems a certainty.

Story of the Bishop's Carriage

Miss Mabel Taliaferro who has the role of "Nance Olden" in Liebler & Co.'s production of "In the Bishop's Carriage," is perhaps the youngest leading woman in America. When this management decided upon producing Channing Pollock's dramatization of Miriam Michelson's novel it determined upon the engagement of Miss Taliaferro for the character of the thief, not more because of her undeniable talent than because of her youth and ingenuousness. Mr. Pollock's play treats of the redemption of Nance Olden. It is difficult to consider seriously the probability of so quickly reforming a woman mature in years and habits of evil. A girl thief, a mere child, "young only in years" might much more easily be convinced of the error of her ways and the possibility of entering upon a new life. Above and beyond this consideration, Liebler & Co. took into account the fact that sympathy might reasonably be given to a young girl influenced by these circumstances where it would be denied a hardened, world-wise woman. Mr. Pollock calls attention in his comedy to the possibility of a girl of nineteen being a clever thief. "Are there girl thieves?" inquires Mrs. Latimer of her son. "Dear me, yes," replied Latimer, "two famous Italians wrote a book six hundred pages long in which they treated of nothing else. One of the famous Italians in question was Lambroso, the great criminologist, who obtained statistics showing that more than forty-three per cent of the women in prison for theft in Europe were under twenty-three years of age. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children extends its aid every year to thousands of unfortunate thoroughly schooled in all the intricacies of crime. It is interesting to note in this connection that the robbery of the bank of Paris in 1901 was accomplished and in the main executed by Antoinette Aschard, who at the time of this remarkable coup was precisely seventeen years of age. It is also noteworthy that Mademoiselle Aschard was reformed by the authorities and is now assistant matron at a home for women in Havre." From all accounts the reasoning of Liebler & Co. has proved to be extremely wise. Miss Taliaferro plays "Nance" with a delicacy of touch and sensitiveness of demeanor which never permits the audience to forget these two important things: That a girl of her years cannot be blamed altogether for evil behavior and that she makes possible the feeling on the part of Latimer that there is in her the material needed for a fine and honest woman. There is no question that much of the success of "In the Bishop's Carriage" is due to intelligent work of Miss Taliaferro and to the discretion of Liebler & Co.

GIRL AND BANDIT ON TONIGHT

Marion Wilder who plays "Arabella" in Frank L. Perley's famous success, "The Girl and the Bandit," has brought suit against a manufacturer of dentifrice for using her photograph without permission to advertise his wares. Miss Wilder has a superb set of teeth and a most engaging smile. The tooth-powder man in some unknown way secured a photograph, was impressed with its value for advertising purposes and promptly proceeded to appropriate same. Miss Wilder is not seeking fame in this channel, but prefers to do so through the medium of her position with the Frank L. Perley Opera company (non-syndicate) which will be seen at the La Crosse theatre tonight. All of Mr. Perley's productions—seven in number—will play the independent houses during the present season, and it is safe to say that his six new ones will equal in cast, scenic production, costumes and attractiveness his former successes, "The Bostonians," "Alice Nelson's Opera company," "The Chaperons" and others.

Ernest Thos. Seton and his Wild Animal Friends

The management of Y. M. C. A. course of entertainments will present Mr. Ernest Thompson Seton to a La Crosse audience at La Crosse theatre next Tuesday evening, 21st inst., in his popular lecture, "Wild Animals I Have Known." Mr. Seton's books have been very widely read by young and old alike and he is certain to be greeted by a large audience. All of Mr. Seton's writings and drawings descriptive of the personality of wild animals are greatly enhanced by his inimitable description of them from his own life. It is seldom that an author-artist is gifted with the ability to entertain upon the lecture platform, but Mr. Ernest Thompson Seton is said to be as clever with his voice as with his pen and pencil. Full particulars of the lecture may be found among the amusement notices.

JEROME WAS ONCE A REPORTER

Jerome K. Jerome, whose entertainment will be presented at the La Crosse theatre on December 6th for the benefit of the La Crosse Press club, has experimented with nearly all professions, having been in succession, during his early years, an actor, a clerk, a stenographer, a reporter, an editor, and finally he discovered his vocation as an author and playwright. In the editorial chair he founded, in conjunction with Robert Barr, The Idler, and he was also the originator of To-day. He found, however, too much responsibility in the grind of an editor, and in a desire to be free of London's fogs he gradually dropped journalism to keep to literature alone. Books can be written anywhere, and so for three years Dresden has supplied the winter quarters of an idle fellow, who is yet so busy that he could only devote one hour a week to rambling through the art galleries. As an entertainer Mr. Jerome is at his best. He does not describe his characters to an audience—he is the character. One of the funniest skits on his program is his "Uncle Podgers and the Picture."

Miss Thurston Tomorrow to be a Favorite

Theatregoers are looking forward with pleasurable anticipation to the annual visit of Adelaide Thurston in her new play, "The Triumph of Betty" at the La Crosse theatre Saturday, Nov. 18th. While Miss Thurston is a host in herself, still her company this year is the largest and most capable that has ever supported this sweet little actress and her production will be complete in every detail.

WOULD GLADLY ANNUL CONTRACT

Coal companies furnishing the county with coal find objection to the inference brought out in the county board proceedings of yesterday that the county is being held up for coal. Last year a cheap grade of Illinois coal was used which cost considerably under $4.00. During the summer the building and grounds committee asked bids for genuine Pocahontas smokeless lump coal. Two bids were entered by the Whitebreast Fuel company and the Cargill Coal company. These bids were for $5.60 per ton, each being accepted for a portion of the tonnage needed.

In speaking of the matter this morning Jake Becker of the Whitebreast Fuel company said his company would gladly annul the contract with the county if the supervisors thought they were being held up. November quotations on Pocahontas smokeless lump coal f. o. b. at lake ports is 5.25 per ton. Added to this is $1.35 per ton freight making $6.60 per ton. Added to this is 10 cents for weighing and the cost of hauling which would bring the price close to $7.00 at present quotations. The price of $5.60 quoted the county was made possible by the foresight of the coal company in contracting for the coal early in the year when it was purchased at a cheaper figure.

As to the superiority of the Pocahontas coal, the coal companies refer objectors to the engineer of the courthouse or to residents of the vicinity of the courthouse and jail where the cheap coal was used last year.

BECK GETS FIRMER HOLD ON PROPERTY

A deed was filed with the register of deeds this morning whereby Henry M. Hunt transfers to William S. Beck an interest in the block at the corner of Fourth and Main streets occupied by Heberd's drug store. Mr. Beck and Mr. Hunt have owned this building jointly for several years. The consideration named in the deed was $5,000.

Two candidates were initiated into the Elks last night.

FIT FOR A KING

Is the "Oriental Limited" of the Great Northern Railway.

The greatest luxury of travel is afforded by the "Oriental Limited" of the Great Northern Railway. A distinctive feature of this train is the new compartment observation library car. In the construction of these cars the purpose in view has been to furnish the traveling public with every comfort and luxury which they could secure at a first-class hotel or at their club. Ease, elegance and excellence is the combination sought and obtained in the building of these cars. The observation rooms of these cars are finished in vermillion wood and the chairs are upholstered in green leather, the remainder of the furnishings being in harmony with the general color scheme. The card room is finished in English oak, with green leather seat coverings. The four state rooms, which are unusually large, are finished in mahogany, coco, vermillion and tonquin, while the furnishings are olive, reddish rose, green and maroon plush, in the order named. The drawing room is finished in mahogany and all furnishings are golden brown plush.

The rear half of these cars is devoted to observation room, handsomely furnished with easy chairs, writing desks, etc. Wide plate glass windows afford unobstructed views of the surrounding country. Those who enjoy being in the open air will find comfortable seats on the protected rear platform.

Current periodicals, a branch of the Booklovers' Library, also the latest newspapers obtainable at starting point and en route are always at the service of patrons.

A good meal enhances the pleasure of a journey, a poor one destroys it.
It is safe to say that of this important feature of modern train equipment, the Great Northern railway has established a standard for excellence which helps make an overland journey something to anticipate. All meals served a la carte.

VANDERBOOM OUT, BRINDLEY IS A CRIPPLE

MADISON, Nov. 17.—With 1,500 rooters to bid the team good luck, with the band playing "Hot Time," and the chorus singing the varsity toast, the Wisconsin football squad left Madison yesterday afternoon for the game at Ann Arbor. Capt. Vanderboom, his arm in a plaster of paris cast, accompanied the team. There was a look of disappointment in the captain's face as the train pulled out of the station, for he received the doctor's decision that he could not play against the Wolverines.

Still Hope to Win.

Despite Wisconsin's hard luck with her captain, the confidence in the team seems to be unshaken. There is a general feeling that Wisconsin will win at Ann Arbor. It is not the kind of confidence that finds its expression in boisterous demonstration, but it is the genuine stuff. Everyone says "We will win." The players also are of this same opinion, and are not backward in telling their friends to put their money on the team. Coaches King and Holt, in accordance with their usual custom, are silent. The most dexterous questioning could elicit nothing from the little coach beyond a smile.

Brindley Still a Cripple.

In addition to Capt. Vanderboom being on the side lines it is also probable that Brindley will play only a portion of the game. The injury to his knee has left him in bad shape, and Trainer Kraenzlein does not think he can last the entire game. Should this prove true, Soukup will go in at end. It is not yet decided who will take Vanderboom's place, but the choice lies between Clark and Wraetz.

FELT FATAL STROKE AND TALKED TO WIFE ABOUT IT

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 17.—Professor A. C. Wightman, of Randolph Macon college, Ashland, one of the most conspicuous young educators in the state, was awakened at four o'clock yesterday morning with a realization that the symptoms of paralysis were upon him.

Being a thorough student of physiology, he knew what to expect, and awakening his young wife he talked freely with her as the insidious disease crept slowly up his body. His last words just before his brain was attacked showed that he was cheerful and resigned.

Dr. Wightman held a fellowship in Johns Hopkins University.

Civil Service Positions

The United States civil service commission announces an examination in La Crosse on December 6-7, 1905, to secure eligibles from which to make certification to fill two vacancies in the position of fourth assistant examiner in the patent office at an entrance of $1,200 per annum, each, and similar vacancies as they may occur.

As the commission has experienced considerable difficulty in securing eligibles for this position, examinations having been held on October 5-6 and October 18-19, qualified persons are urged to enter this examination.

Robbing Yourself

That is just what you are doing when you fail to get regular and sufficient sleep. Your body requires this unconscious period for repair work; without it your nerve energy becomes exhausted, and you are tired, worn-out, nervous, excitable; have headache, neuralgia, indigestion, poor appetite, or other ailments caused by a lack of nerve force. Make it your business to sleep. If you are restless, take Dr. Miles' Nervine; it soothes and strengthens the nerves, and brings sweet, refreshing, life-giving sleep, and gives the organs power to work naturally. Try it to-day.

"I had a severe spell of fever, which left me in a very weak condition and very nervous. I had severe spells of headache and neuralgia, and could sleep but very little. Every effort that was made to recover my strength was of no avail until I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. After I commenced to take the Nervine my sleep was profound and restful, and the pains in my head, as well as the neuralgia pains, left me to a certain extent and I grew gradually better."

MRS. E. E. GILBERTSON,
821 Berylan Ave., Belvidere, Ills.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

Couple Dodges Parents

APPLETON, Wis., Nov. 17.—"We are on our way to Menominee, Mich., where we expect to be married," said Walter H. Colwell as he and his bride-to-be walked into the Sherman house in Appleton. The couple came here from Peoria, Ill., having eloped on an early train this morning. The prospective groom had no hesitancy in telling how he and Miss Lucy Bemmison eluded their parents at an early hour and immediately took the train for Menominee, Mich., where they will be married and receive trading stamps from Justice Vandenberg. The age of Miss Bemmison, which is scarcely 20 years, is said to have been the parents' principal objection to the marriage.

LENGTHENS PISTOL BARREL TO END HIS LIFE

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—G. Frederick Gerken killed himself at the Park Avenue hotel yesterday morning, leaving a box of gold bearing quartz and two farewell notes and a foot long extension on the barrel of the revolver with which he took his life to add a feature entirely new to the data of self-destruction the coroners have gathered. Gerken was twenty-five years old and lived at No. 1, 024 Jackson avenue, the Bronx, until he took a room in the hotel, in Fourth avenue at Thirty-third street, on October 20.

Well dressed and almost always with a book in his hand, he gained the reputation of a student at the hotel, where he was constantly seen about the corridors in the day. He paid his bills regularly. A chambermaid knocked at his door yesterday morning at nine o'clock and Gerken answered "All right." She went to his room again at noon and could get no response. The door was locked and she notified the hotel manager, who caused the door to be forced.

Gerken was partly dressed and in bed, with the covers pulled over his head. He was dead from a bullet wound above the left temple. His left hand had evidently gripped a new revolver, which lay close to his head.

To the barrel of the revolver Gerken had fitted a piece of galvanized iron pipe, one and one-quarter inches in diameter and a foot long. He had stuffed the joint of pistol barrel and pipe with paper and with this clumsy weapon had shot himself with his left hand.

No money was found among Gerken's effects, but in a valise was a box of quartz in which there are traces of what appears to be gold. Coroner Scholer after an interview with the brothers of the young man reached the conclusion that financial straits had caused the suicide.

Gerken left a note to the manager of the hotel asking "a thousand pardons" for killing himself there and saying that his brothers would pay what he owed. He also left a note addressed to "Dear Mother and Brothers," reading: "Please forgive me, I am sure I shall be happier, now. Don't grieve too much."

Children Prepare for Santa Claus

Children get ready for old Santa will soon be heard with his jingling bells and his pretty sleigh. The stores are being decorated and arranged, the pretty, shiny toys brought out, for Santa wants a good display for the good children who are waiting for his coming. And there are such oceans of pretty things. Why, there will hardly be room in the big stores for all the dolls and wagons, blocks and books. Just loads of them and one prettier than another.

In the great stores the clerks are busy, preparing for his coming. Shelves are being placed, pillars erected, walls decorated and a thousand and one pretty fixtures arranged so that there will be room for Santa's great display.

It won't be long now until he comes—a little over five weeks, and then the boys and girls of La Crosse will be made happy. The good old saint has sent his advance agent already to La Crosse to find out the names of the good boys and girls and when seen today he had such a long list of good little boys and girls, such a great book filled with names that there wasn't hardly any more room and he laughingly said that he thought he would have to get another book, there were so many good boys and girls in La Crosse that Santa wanted to remember. So the city stores are being made ready for Santa's goods to be put on display, so that the boys and girls may have a choice of things, and before long the jingle of bells will be heard and the good old saint will come flying over the house tops to make happy the good boys and girls of La Crosse.
